

Lewisville “Angels” Volunteer to Support Salvation Army December 22, 2015

On December 11, volunteers from NAU’s Lewisville campus worked alongside representatives from the Salvation Army to sort Christmas presents for area children. The presents were donated by Lewisville-area citizens who selected “angel tags” from a Salvation Army Angel Tree. Each tag gave a child’s age, gender and requested gifts. Donations of new clothes or toys were then matched to the children of needy families who were participating in the program. Thanks to the efforts of the NAU-Lewisville volunteers, 650 families were able give their children Christmas presents this holiday season. “Every child deserves to experience the joy of Christmas morning,” explains the Salvation Army.

Salvation Army’s Adopt an Angel for Christmas - Austin South Campus Volunteers December 21, 2015

Every year the Salvation Army provides Christmas assistance to families in need in Travis and Williamson Counties of Austin, Texas. Every child deserves to experience the joy of Christmas morning. Through Angel Tree, thousands of local children will find gifts waiting under their Christmas trees this year.

National American University- Austin South Campus participated by adopting 5 children from ages 5 months to 12 years old to give joy to these children in need during the holiday season.
